TAFT MAY DECIDE STATUS OF CRANE

Case of Minister to China Remains Unsettled.

RECALL DUE TO INDISCRETION

Verdict as to Whether Crane Shall Be Retained as Minister.

From all accounts the incident involving the recall to Washington from San Francisco of Charles R. Crane, the American Open Their Convention at Minister to China, is still unsettled.

Secretary of State Knox, who came to Washington from Valley Forge, Pa., with the sole intention of interviewing Mr. Crane in regard to certain alleged indiscreet actions on the part of the latter, is remaining here, and the time of his departure is uncertain. Mr. Crane is also in Washington.

"Not a word," was all that Mr. Knox would say in reply to inquiries as to developments in the Crane incident. It was understood that Mr. Knox intended to return to Valley Forge yesterday afternoon, but that he did not do so is not regarded as significant. The prospects are that no new move bearing on the Mr. Crane at the Knox residence Sunday greatly exaggerated.

There is now no reason for any further concealment of the reasons which actuated Secretary Knox in directing Mr. Crane to cancel his steamship reservation and report in Washington without delay. No delicate situation involving diplomatic relations between China and the United States was concerned in the matter. The diplomatic situation between China and the United States is not delicate. It is true that this government has strong objections to the proposed action of China in granting exclusive concessions to the Japanese government for railroads in Manchuria, but that is a cir-cumstance which is regarded as one that received his instructions from the State Department and started for the Orient, truth of the matter is that Mr. Crane's recall was due to a belief on the part of State Department officials that in some of his after-dinner speeches as that city.
